

WHERE WE ARE

The Holiday Village Riva dei Pini is located in Lido di Fermo, Italy, in the Marche region on the Adriatic coast. We are located 50 km south of Ancona and 100 km north of Pescara.

The village lies on the outskirts of the attractive small town of Porto San Giorgio which may be easily reached on foot and where it is possible to enjoy the enormous potential for entertainment and shopping offered by the town. The whole area is the site of festivals, concerts and typical events.

By car:

The village can be reached directly via the Adriatic State Road n.16 south of Ancona (km. 355-356) or from the A14 motorway, exiting at Porto Sant'Elpidio. Continuing towards Lido di Fermo, the Riva dei Pini Holiday Village is situated at the border between Lido di Fermo – Porto San Giorgio.

By plane:

If you plan on coming by plane, note that we are located only 60km from Ancona-Falconara Airport where there are low cost flights to Düsseldorf-Weeze, Charleroi and London-Stansted.

You will also be able to rent a car at the Ancona-Falconara airport or in Porto San Giorgio which is only 4km far from Riva dei Pini.
